--Passcode: 246650

Facilitators: Tim McIntyre
Topics will include:
- how to plan good courses and avoid errors
- how to make courses fair, and suitable for various cohorts
- safety and risk management
Understanding how a controller thinks is also a great way of improving your orienteering skills!

Attending the workshop will give you 20 points towards the 60 points needed to be accredited at Level 1. The other main requirements are to:
- set courses for an OY or similar standard event,
- be Organiser for an event
- be able to complete Hard level courses.
Points can be accumulated over a number of years (see accreditation form link below).

After attending this workshop and completing the appropriate Level 1 tasks, participants may complete the accreditation form and email it to technical@oq.asn.au
