Boronia Bushland Reserve

Saturday 15th August 1.30pm – 2.30pm starts

Family Fun Day –

Bring the grandkids

Gently sloping bushland framed by a complex watercourse. Extensive track network, good visibility, fast run.

Foot O Moderate 2.2KM & 3.5km

Easy 2.0km for Kids

Very Easy 1.0km for little Kids (pram friendly)

Scoot O 1.0km for Kids (pram friendly)

Bring your own scooter or hire one from our fleet. The scoot O course is a line event. The map will show a red line indicating the bike path you must follow. At each intersection the competitor will need to orientate the map. Control flags will be placed at random along the route but not shown on the map. Riding your scooter will make this a fast paced sprint. Competitors will require parental permission. Wearing a helmet is recommended. Please BYO your helmet.

Organising team: Four generations of the Simson family. Enquires to Rob Simson - Phone 3345 4527 or Jen Woods - Phone 3341 6825.

Road directions: Take the Mt Lindesay Hwy south through Browns Plains, under the Middle Road flyover, a further 1.2km to traffic lights at Fedrick St and Green Rd. Turn right into Fedrick St, Boronia Heights, continue to T junction with Short St. Turn left continue across the creek, then left again into Conlan St and into the bushland picnic area car park.
