This is the famous Mid Week Champs. We will be using Si for punching so bring your stick.

But it is not survival of the fittest. This years courses offer much contouring rather than climb so you'll find that the climb is well less than 4%. The courses are set through open forest and clear underfoot.

There will be the usual cold collation, rolls and soft drinks supplied by Gentleman Jim courtesy of our weekly soft drink sales income. And yes there will be presentations so no starts after 11.30am to ensure we can have the lunch and presentations at 12.30 sharp.

Please enter on line so Jim has an idea of numbers for catering.

This event suits experienced orienteers only.
