Update 26 July 2022: Unfortunately the threat of Foot and Mouth Disease is too great for the farmer, and permission for this event has been withdrawn. We will be welcomed back when circumstances change.

24 July: We apologise that entries to this event are not yet open. The farmer is justifiably extremely concerned about the threat of Foot and Mouth Disease and we are in the process of negotiating entry conditions and restrictions. We will open entries once these are confirmed so that the entrants are aware of what will be expected on the day.
