Enoggeroos will be conducting a coaching session at Bunyaville Picnic Grounds on Saturday 2nd June commencing at 3pm.
The session will look at the basics of orienteering including understanding the orienteering map and the representation of the ground by the mapper. For those who have been to previous sessions, we will consolidate and move to other areas.

As the session is conducted in the bush it is advisable to be there a little before 3pm. For new comers the clothing should be good joggers and long slacks as the undergrowth is quite thick.

For any further information you can contact Jim Bowling on 38511048 most evenings.
